THEATRICAL AND OTHERWISE.

News and Comment of Stage Matters and Other Gossip.

Charles L. Davis, who is known as "Alvin Joslin" is dangerously ill of pneumonia in Pennsylvania. His recovery is doubtful.

Mrs. Leslie Carter will play "Zaza" at the Grand, in Cincinnati, during the week beginning March 12th. The prices will range from fifty cents to two dollars.

Marion Manola Mason, who sued for an absolute divorce from her husband, Jack Mason, was Wednesday granted $25 weekly alimony and $250 counsel fees by Judge Smith, of the Supreme Court.

There is a bum minstrel organization touring the Bluegrass with several trunks full of chestnuts. Here's hoping that they will skip Paris. They punished us last year.

There are three "Quo Vadis" companies on the road this season. The Whitney production is creating a furore everywhere, with Joseph Haworth as leading man, and another company is playing the large business at The Hopkins, in Chicago. Aiden Benedict, who is probably the weakest romantic actor, on the road is the owner and star of the third company. Benedict's "Quo Vadis" will likely prove a howling farce.

"THE CHRISTIAN"

The advance sale of seats for "The Christian" is evidence that it will prove one of the biggest engagements of the season at the Lexington opera house. The strongest scene in the play is when John Storm, driven to the verge of madness by the belief that Horatio Drake is conspiring to the moral destruction of Glory Quayle, and frenzied to jealousy, attempts to kill her. The acting in this situation is intensely realistic and thrillingly effective. The end of the scene finds Glory Quayle on her knees with a crucifix raised, praying for the safety of John Storm, who has left her and been attacked by a mob in the streets. As the curtain falls the sounds of the mob are heard, which greatly adds to the realism of this remarkable situation. Notwithstanding the melodramatic incident, and the great scene at the end of the second act, where John Storm saves Lord Robert Urs and Horatio Drake from the attack of his parishioners, it is the opinion of very many people who have seen the play that the most touchingly effected situation of all occurs just before the curtain falls, when Horatio Drake claps the hands of Glory Quayle and John Storm, and leaves them reunited with a fervent "God bless you."

About one hundred Christians will go up to the matinee to-morrow. Secure seats and railroad tickets from Geo. D. Mitchell.

STOCK AND TURF NEWS.

Sales and Transfers Of Stock, Crop, Etc. Turf Notes.

Congressman Bailey, of Texas, has named twenty-two mares in the Kentucky Futurity for foals of 1900.

Texas will send a mammoth steer to the Paris Exposition. It weighs 1,700 pounds and its horns measure nine feet seven inches from point to point. It is owned by J. M. Doble, a Kentuckian.

The biggest average price for tobacco crop this season was received at Louisville Tuesday for a crop of seven hogheads from Franklin county. Prices ranged from $7.40 to $18 and the average price for the crop was $13.

Woodford & Buckner's stable of race horses, including Pink Coat and others, arrived in Louisville yesterday, to be trained for the Spring races. Talbot Bros' stable, with John Bright and eight others, also reached Louisville this week.

The Stanford Journal says: W. P. Grimes is feeding 110 young cattle on crushed corn and cotton seed meal with fine success. He also feeds his milch cows cotton seed meal and there has been a decided improvement in them since he commenced. They give more and richer milk. The meal costs a little over a cent a pound and should not be fed too lavishly on the start.

Be-han-ne-sey Entertainment.

REV. E. L. POWELL, who held a successful meeting at the Paris Christian Church several years ago, gives the following endorsement of the Be-han-ne-sey Oriental entertainment to be given Monday night at the opera house:

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 1900. It is with very great pleasure I give a written testimonial of my appreciation of the Be-han-ne-sey entertainment. Both the lecturer and the lecture captivated all of us. As an exposition and living illustration of Oriental customs and life, I do not see how it could have been improved.

E. L. POWELL,
Pastor First Christian Church.

OBITUARY.

Funeral Announcements of Deceased Citizens.

Mrs. Anna Bell Hall, wife of James H. Hall, died Tuesday evening at the family residence in Maysville. She was the mother of Mrs. Carroll Marshall, of Huntington, W. Va., who was formerly Miss Suzanne Hall. Mrs. Hall is survived by her husband and two children. The deceased was a noble Christian woman.

Miss Nancy Engate, aged sixty-five years, who formerly lived in this city with the family of A. Sanders, died Monday at Jackson at the home of Dr. Daily. She was a member of the Baptist Church of this city, and was an excellent Christian woman. Her remains were brought to this city Tuesday afternoon for burial, and Rev. Eberhardt conducted the funeral services at the grave. Mrs. Daily and children came down with the remains, and were guests of Dr. M. H. Daily at the Windsor.

M. B. Smith, Butternut, Mich., says: DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the very best pills I ever used for constiveness, liver and bowel troubles. W. T. Brooks.

LIBERTY, IND., JAN. 10, 1898.
Pepsin Syrup Co., Monticello, Ill.
GENTLEMEN:—For about 10 years I was afflicted with Constipation, indigestion and Stomach and Bowel trouble. I tried Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and soon found relief. After using one fifty-cent bottle I am now well and can eat anything that comes of the table without suffering pain and distress in my stomach and I can cheerfully recommend it to anyone that has any bowel or stomach trouble. If you are afflicted try it and you will be convinced.
Very truly yours,
C. K. STONNEGER.

Mrs. Harriet Evans, Hinsdale, Ill., writes: "I never fail to relieve my children from croup at once by using One Minute Cough Cure. I would not feel safe without it." Quickly cures coughs, colds, grippe and all throat and lung diseases.

"I used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure in my family with wonderful results. It gives immediate relief, is pleasant to take and is truly the dyspeptic's best friend," says E. Hartgerink, Overisel, Mich. Digests what you eat. Cannot fail to cure. W. T. Brooks.

You Can't

Dodge Them

Did you ever try to dodge the rain-drops? Did not succeed very well, did you? It's just as useless to try to escape from the germs of consumption. You can't do it. They are about us on every hand and we are constantly taking them into our lungs.

Then why don't we all have this disease? Simply because these germs cannot gain a foothold in a strong throat and lungs. It's when these are weak that the germs master.

The body must be well supplied with fat. The danger comes when the blood is poor and the body is thin. If your cough does not yield, and your throat and lungs feel raw and sore, you should not delay another day. Take of Cod-Liver Oil with Hypophosphites at once. It will heal the inflamed membranes and greatly strengthen them as well. The digestion becomes stronger, the appetite better and the weight increases. The whole body becomes well fortified and the germs of consumption cannot gain a foothold.

It's this nourishing, sustaining and strengthening power of SCOTT'S EMULSION that has made it of such value in all wasting and exhausting diseases.
